

Friday Feeling – a message from the Assistant Headteacher

A chilly end to our second week of the term, with temperatures looking to plummet further! Today you will receive a copy of the spring term's curriculum newsletter outlining your child's learning for this term.

Year 3, have embraced their Rainforest topic and their classroom is taking on a distinctive rainforest look. Watch out for the trailing vines as you enter the classroom!

Year 5 have launched their topic with a live video link up with the National Space Centre in Leicester and were kind enough to invite the Year 6s who enjoyed the topic last year. Despite the centre 'having a problem', the children were able to communicate with a scientist at the centre and learnt lots of new things about the moon and solar system.

Yesterday we were visited by BFBS who came to record our Haig School song, 'Don't Stop Believin'. The children sang beautifully with great enthusiasm. Hopefully some of you may have heard the song being played on the BFBS Totally Connected show this afternoon. Don't worry if you missed it as it will be posted on the Haig School Facebook page as soon as possible.

As Mr Turner mentioned last week in the newsletter, he will be taking on his 'load and drag' challenge on Tuesday 29th January. A JustGiving site has now been set up and donations will be gratefully received for the very worthy charity - Walking with the Wounded. You can find the site link on the newsletter e-mail.

Walking with the Wounded was established in 2010 to support the employment outcomes of wounded, injured and sick servicemen and women. It provides assistance to find new careers outside the military and helps to provide long-term security for themselves and their families.

We say a fond farewell to Miss Emily Rearden and a big thank you for all of her hard work in her role as resources clerk. We welcome back Mrs Rika Gauniquio from her maternity leave who will continue in this role.

Have a lovely weekend,

Miss O. Geoghegan (Assistant Headteacher)
